

The objective of the project is to identify ways that could enhance the retention and sustainability of community health workers in the improvement of community case management of malaria.