

The project aims at building capacity for Spatial Data Infrastructure (SDI) for use in monitoring climate change within the Lake Victoria region