

Water Resource Management Authority (December 2015)

The collaboration was initiated by School of Engineering and Technology to solicit for funds as grants, contributions, subscriptions and such related funds for purpose of realizing any or all of the objectives of the collaboration in projects being undertaken jointly. The MoU came into force after a successful implementation of a project titled: Development of Decision Support System for Sustainable Participatory Sub-Catchment Water Resources Management in the Face of Deteriorating Climatic Conditions.