

The goal is to equip water resource users Association (WRUAs) with skills on managing the sub-catchment resources in the face of changing climate.