

1. Define the term Sustainable development
2. List at least THREE approaches to development.
3. List at least THREE elements of the Human poverty index.
4. Briefly explain the relationship between health and development.
5. List factors that affects an individual's health status.
6. Define the term Health reforms.
7. Define the term Health Policy.
8. Explain at least FOUR effects of globalization on health and development in Kenya.
9. List at least SIX components of health.
10. Define the term Health according to WHO.

SECTION B

1. Describe the concept human capital, economic capital and social capital indicating how each relates to health and development.
2. Outline and explain the major indicators you would use to evaluate the status of health and development in your community.
3. Explain using examples the different roles of civil society organizations in the health sector.
4. State ways in which poverty causes ill-health and how ill-health causes poverty in your community.