

SECTION "A"

1. What's the difference between;
  - i. Gender and sex (2mks)
  - ii. Gender equity and equality (2 mks)
  - iii. Gender mainstreaming and gender advocacy (2mks)
2. What are the challenges faced in addressing gender issues in Kenya (3marks).
3. State THREE contemporary social changes in the lives of men and women in the society (3 marks).
4. Give THREE ways in which gender differences in a society may influence both men and women (3marks).
5. What are the challenges of gender mainstreaming in the public sector (3marks).
6. What are the causes of gender inequality (3marks).
7. Give THREE reasons you would advocate for Gender equity in your community (3marks).
8. State THREE Gender and health inequalities in Kenya (3marks).
9. In your own opinion, give three reasons why you think it would be important to address Gender issues in the society (3 marks).

SECTION "B"

- 1a). What are the impacts of disasters on women and men? (10 marks).
- b). Illustrate in detail the 'GENDER' in the context of health (10 marks).
- 2a). Discuss why it is important to integrate Gender issues in health promotion and evaluating health interventions in a particular community (10 marks).
- b). How can women and men, people with disabilities, children and the elderly participate and be active in disaster risk reduction activities? (10marks).

3a). In your own opinion, illustrate why you would advocate for vulnerable groups in the society. (10 marks)

b). Discuss factors that influence equality in Kenya (10 marks).

4a). Discuss the importance of Gender in healthcare (10 marks)

b). How does Gender affect health inequalities? Discuss (10 marks)