

The project aims at determining quality of life of cervical cancer patients in western Kenya as well as determining physical and material needs of cervical cancer patients in western Kenya.