

Regional Centre for Mapping of Resource for Development (RCMRD)

The University received research funding to implement two research projects. The projects were successful implemented that resulted into signing of an MoU with the University. Through the MoU, RCMRD is set to donate a global navigation satellite system (GNSS) Continuously operating systems (CORS). The process of acquiring these facilities is ongoing.