

WHO/TDR/IDRC Project Implementation workshops

The University organized and participated in workshops through the project Early warning systems for improved human health and resilience to climate-sensitive vector borne diseases. The workshops were as follows: Methodology workshop for PhD and MSc students trained on access, use and sharing of data held November 2015; Planning workshop held in February 2016; Data sharing and end of year workshop held March, 2016 in Eldoret; Global workshop in Geneva Switzerland and, Climate Change colloquium in New York held in June 2016.