

Managecom Systems Limited (February 2016)

The collaboration was initiated by the School of Informatics and Innovative Systems. The purpose of this collaboration is for training on short courses in cyber-security and digital forensics. The course targets law enforcement agencies, members of the Bar and Bench, defence forces and ICT platform service providers among others.